FIRST HIKE OF THE NEW YEAR AT NORRIS DAM STATE PARK

Norris Dam State Park brought in 2017 with a FIRST HIKE at 12:01 AM! 41 participated in the rainy hike that started at the Tea Room, walking down to the dam, then back along Lakeside Trail to the cabin area, and then returning to the Tea Room where a fire and refreshments were enjoyed. This was the third year in a row for some of the hikers. Everyone seemed to enjoy the alternative to "watching the ball drop" and are looking forward to 2018.

Monthly hikes will be scheduled or just call the park office and come walk a trail with a Ranger.

For additional information call 865-494-9854 or visit www.appalachianarts.net.

LANDSCAPE PAINTING, with Sherry Smith, Thursday, January 5, 12, 19, 26 and Feb 2 & 9, 6:00 - 9:00 p.m. Have you ever wanted to paint a beautiful landscape, but didn't think you could? Everyone can learn to paint! In these classes, we will explore the skills needed to create beautiful paintings. We will look at composition, value, perspective, use of color, and the effect of light on the overall painting. Each week we will complete a "paint along" canvas to define our skills and then work on a painting of your choice. Be looking for scenes you enjoy and make digital pictures for your reference photos. During this part of the class, you will work at your own pace with individual help from the instructor. Earlybird Cost: $110 members, $120 nonmembers. After December 22: $120/$130. Supply fees payable to instructor first day of class: $30 (this includes paint and brushes used in class, and canvases) Materials list of items to bring to class available at registration. Registration deadline: December 29

DICHROIC PENDANT WORKSHOP, with Donna Gryder, Saturday, January 14, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. Nothing says fusing like the bling of dichroic glass. Here's your chance to experience the sparkles and colors that only dichroic glass can offer. Each participant will make their own wearable masterpieces, in the form of up to 4 glass pendants, using a variety of fusible glass. Basic glass fusing information will be discussed. Pendants will be designed, cut and pieced together during class. The firing of the pendants will take place during the next few days, away from the Center. Silver plated and gold plated bails will be available for attachment prior to delivery or will come with the pendants along with instructions for attachment – this will be at the participant's choice. Pendants will be available for pick up at the Center on Saturday, January 28, 2017. Age 16 and older. Earlybird Cost: $45 members, $55 nonmembers. After January 2: $55/$65. Materials fee: $50 paid to instructor at beginning of class. Registration deadline: January 7

POTTERY ON THE WHEEL, with Sandra McEntire, Monday, January 23, 30 and February 6, 13, 10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Bring a lunch each day. There will be four classes. Some wheel ability helpful but not required. Cost: $100 members, $110 nonmembers, plus studio fees as needed. Registration deadline: January 16

FEATURED TENNESSEE ARTIST WORKSHOP! HANDBUILDING WORKSHOP, with Judy Brater, Two Fridays, January 27 and March 3, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Judy Brater will be teaching a class that shows how to alter bowls and vases by adding coils, and how to texture them using a variety of pottery stamps and tools. Bring three leather hard formed bowls, any size or shape and one vase shaped vessel. Also bring any texturing tools, towels, extra clay needed for coils and altering forms. March 3 will be glazing day! Glazes included. This workshop is funded in part by the Tennessee Arts Commission and the East Tennessee Foundation. Earlybird Cost: $60 members, $70 nonmembers. After January 13, Cost: $70/$80. Clay will be available for purchase for those who need it. Firing fees will apply to any clay not purchased at the Center. Registration deadline January 19. Judy Brater began her chosen vocation in ceramic arts in 1972. Her formal education includes a BFA from the University of Cincinnati where she majored in ceramics and painting. Her prior art influence began at an early age on a family farm where her Grandmother, a painter and quilter, and her Mother, also a quilter guided her and provided the positive energy and art education which became a priority in her life. Judy exhibits in fine craft festivals, and is represented in select fine craft galleries. Judy's life changed in an instant, when in 2009, she was diagnosed with breast cancer. She feels the diagnosis provided the opportunity to focus and examine artistic priorities. Her ceramic pieces are most important to her when it gives pleasure to others. She knows the power in art and healing.
