Cancer Survivors Invited to Kick Off American Cancer Society Festival of Hope

RELAY FOR LIFE OF ANDERSON COUNTY

6.15.18 | Melton Lake Park | 6 - 10 p.m.

On Friday, June 15th, the American Cancer Society Festival of Hope for Anderson County will kick off the 2018 event at Melton Lake Park in Oak Ridge at 6:00 PM. Area cancer survivors and their families or caregivers are invited to come as early as 5:00 PM to check in at the Survivor's Tent which will be located near the picnic pavilion. The Survivor Ceremony allows the public the opportunity to cheer on our area cancer survivors as they are recognized and then walk in the special Survivors Lap, a moving experience honoring those who have defeated cancer and encouraging those who are currently battling cancer. Survivors will join together to walk the lap, unified in victory and hope. This empowering celebration is just a small piece of the special experience at the Festival of Hope. The teams participating in the 2018 Festival of Hope event will then take part in the Parade of Teams where teams will walk in their various themed shirts and costumes.

Festival of Hope and Relay For Life events are a unique grassroots fundraising event in which individuals and teams of participants in over 6,100 communities nationwide come together to celebrate the lives of those who have faced cancer, remember loved ones lost, and commit to fight back against the disease. The money raised through these events supports the efforts of the American Cancer Society to create a world with less cancer and more birthdays.

All area cancer survivors are invited to participate in the survivor ceremony at the Anderson County Festival of Hope at Melton Lake Park. Cancer survivors, their families and caregivers are invited to spend the evening enjoying the festivities of music, food, games, entertainment and an auction as we all come together as a community fighting against cancer. There will also be the luminaria ceremony at 9:00 PM to honor cancer survivors and remember our loved ones who have lost their battle to cancer.

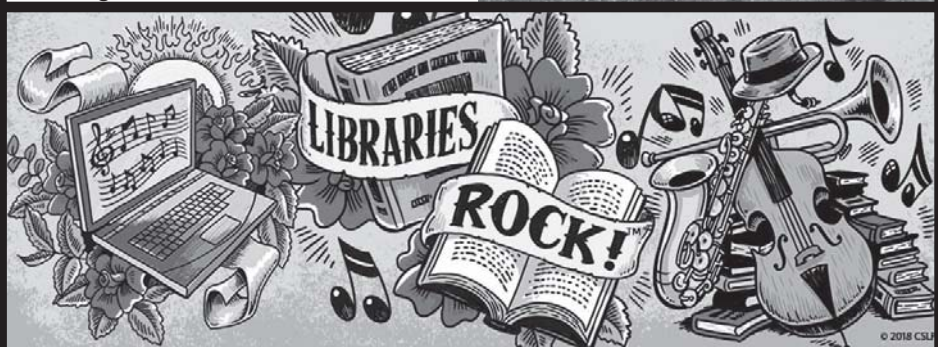

In order to receive a survivor t-shirt at the event, you must register at relayforlife.org/anderson.

Library Boxes at Norris Dam State Park

Chris Simmons, News Sentinel, assists Amanda with some paper boxes that will be transformed into portable libraries. This project, being developed by Amanda, will put books around the park for our guests. HUGE thank you to the Knoxville News Sentinel, both Chris and Tim Price in the office that assisted with the box donation.

To help promote literacy at Norris Dam State Park we are excited to announce we have set up free libraries in our campgrounds and cabin areas. State Parks are wonderful places to unplug and enjoy all that nature brings. After spending a long day hiking, boating, or swimming, people can curl up next to a campfire and enjoy reading a good book by themselves or with their children. We want to give a special thank you to Knoxville News Sentinel who donated four used newspaper stands that we transformed into these libraries. Also we would like to give a huge thanks to everyone who helped make this project possible and to those who donated books. If anyone is interested in donating books you can bring them to the Park Office or feel free to swap out a book in any of our libraries. Amanda led this project from inception to completion. Wonderful work from this employee in her 4th season working the front office.

Rock Out with Summer Reading this year at the library!
The theme this year is LIBRARIES ROCK!
Registration is May 4th through June 1st.
Summer reading is from June 1st through July 27th.
There will be guest speakers, weekly prizes and more!
Drop by Rocky Top Public Library for more information.

Meeting Reminder!

Hill Cave Tours Resume

We are thrilled to have tours back to Hill Cave, located along the shoreline of Norris Lake !

After a short boat ride, only 10 guests at a time, on the parks pontoon boat, you will spend approximately 45 minutes penetrating the cave over 1000 feet. This wild cave is a perfect "first ever" cave experience. After entering the cave via a 30" x 30" opening in the gate <<opening located at ground level>> the first excitement is entering the flooded portion of the cave.....yes the water is about 4' deep and you must walk in the water for about 75', then you will come out to walk along a pathway. Before reaching the turnaround, there is a second "water walk" the same depth, 4 FEET DEEP ! The level of the lake determines the depth. If you cannot walk in 70 degree water up past your waste, this tour is not for you.

Most of the cave is large enough to drive a truck in. One room has a ceiling of over 45 feet. The only low ceiling is at the entrance. A helmet is suggested along with a hands off light. Brand new batteries and a quality light will make this experience so much better as you view off into the fissures of the cave. Lightweight gloves will help as you move along beside the cave walls.

Upon exiting the cave, we want you to have some extra shoes and trash bag, to change into. To keep our boat as clean as possible, plastic sheeting will be covering the seats for the return trip. YOU WILL BE MUDDY.

No ropes or crawling are involved in this tour after getting past the gate. Caution crawling up the rocky bank can be a challenge outside the cave entrance.

TURKEY VULTURES AT NORRIS DAM STATE PARK

Here at Norris Dam State Park we have a healthy population of Turkey Vultures (Cathartes aura) that can be seen in flight quite regularly. These large birds grow up to 28 inches with an impressive 6 ft. wingspan, which certainly attracts attention while in flight. Turkey Vultures are misunderstood by many but benefit our ecosystem through the removal of dead or dying animals, effectively reducing the spread of illness and disease. They are the only vulture with a keen sense of smell and a strongly developed immune system, attracting the attention of less keenly developed vultures, such as the Black Vulture. Though they spend most of the year roosting in large congregations, from dozens to hundreds of individuals, breeding season begins in March and continues through June. Vultures play an intense game of "follow the leader" during their courtship, where one bird takes flight making dramatic twists and turns along the way while the other follows behind replicating flight patterns. This ritual can go on over the course of several hours and once a mated pair has found each other they, typically, stay together for life.

Turkey vultures prefer cool nest areas far away from human activity and they do not build their own nests for egg laying. They are resourceful animals that take advantage of their surroundings; choosing abandoned stick nests (built by other birds), mammal burrows, hollow logs, rock crevices, and caves to raise their young. Perhaps this is why Norris Dam has such a healthy population of vultures; as the limestone of our region provides conditions suitable for the development of caves and open rock crevices. The young hatchlings pictured above were found in one of our undisclosed caves; as vultures often reuse the same nesting sites year after year this cave is off limits to the public. Vultures can lay up to three eggs but usually lay two eggs with a 28-40 day incubation period. Both parents work together incubating the eggs and then feed their young once they have hatched. The nesting period takes about 60- 84 days and once the young vultures have reached 12 weeks old they are on their own. Though their population is currently stable and growing, they are susceptible to death by poisons and lead found in decaying bodies. We should exercise caution using poisons to ward off pests and ensure hunted animals are removed to avoid led exposure to non-targeted animals. For more information check out the National Audubon Society and Cornell Lab of Ornithology .

Here's How to Find Quality Treatment for Substance Use Disorders

ASAP of Anderson Recommends High Risk Individuals Seek FREE Naloxone

Anderson County, TN, May 2018 – With the rapid emergence of the opioid crisis, it is now more important than ever for people to know how to find quality care. ASAP of Anderson's mission is to prevent and reduce substance misuse among youth and adults in Anderson County. One of ASAP's values is knowledge. It is important for individuals to know and understand what quality treatment looks like and how to access to the care they need.

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) outlines five signs of a quality treatment:

1. Accreditation
2. FDA Approved Medication
3. Evidence-Based Practices
4. Family Member Inclusion in the treatment process
5. Ongoing treatment and support beyond just treating the substance issues

These signs can be used to help decide about the quality of a treatment provider and the types of services offered. Overall, quality programs should offer a range of services accepted as effective in treatment and recover from substance use disorders and should be matched to a person's needs.

For those trying to find quality treatment centers, contact the Tennessee REDLINE at 1-800-889-9789.

In addition, ASAP recommends high risk individuals seek Narcan, the FDA approved nasal form of naloxone, for the emergency treatment of a known or suspected opioid overdose. Narcan counteracts life-threatening effects of opioid overdose. ASAP offers FREE Narcan kits through training to at risk individuals and community members.

For more information or to request Narcan, contact ASAP of Anderson at 865-457-3007 or visit www.asapofanderson.org. Follow @ASAPofAnderson on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

During this year's American Cancer Society Festival of Hope event in Anderson County, participants will have the chance to remember loved ones and honor those battling cancer with a special luminaria ceremony. This moving ceremony will be held at 9:00 PM on Friday evening, June 15th at Melton Lake Park in Oak Ridge as hundreds of these beacons of hope are illuminated. Each luminaria represents the love that families and friends have for a survivor who has won the battle against cancer, for the memory of someone who lost the fight or as a symbol of hope for those who are currently battling cancer.

The luminaria ceremony symbolizes the hope and courage with which we continue to work toward a cure for this deadly disease. After sunset at each of the more than 6,100 Relay For Life or Festival of Hope events nationwide, luminaria decorated with the names of those who have battled cancer are lit and left glowing throughout the night to remind everyone of the incredible importance of their contributions.

Luminaria can be purchased for a minimum donation of $5.00. Forms are available from any team participating in Relay For Life. Several area business and church teams will have forms available, including Clinton Physical Therapy Center, Powell Clinch Utility, Oak Valley Baptist Church, St. Mark United Methodist Church in Clinton, Professional Case Management and Oak Ridge Veterinary. Luminarias can also be purchased the day of the event or on-line at www.relayforlife.org/anderson. For further information, please contact Kelly Lenz at 457-1649 or cptcklenz@aol.com

For more information about Relay For Life or cancer, please contact the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345 or www.cancer.org. Or visit the Relay For Life website at relayforlife.org/anderson. The American Cancer Society is the nationwide, community-based, voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy and service.

ROCKY TOP HOLDS FIRST ARBOR DAY

Rocky Top held its first ever Arbor Day Celebration on April 27th 2018 at City Hall. The last Friday of April is national Arbor Day. The city of Rocky Top performed this ceremony within an overall effort to obtain Tree City USA status from the Arbor Day Foundation. This is a nationally recognized honor that only 45 communities in Tennessee presently have reached. Mayor Michael Lovely declared a proclamation celebrating Arbor Day, with members of the community attending. It was especially great to have members of the Boys and Girls Club of North Anderson County there who participated in the ceremony and also received flowering dogwoods to plant at their homes. 50 flowering dogwoods were given out to community members and city hall employees provided refreshments. An honor tree (flowering dogwood) was planted behind Rocky Top City Hall in honor of the occasion. The Rocky Top Downtown Growth Committee began this process in January and has led to a local tree ordinance and tree commission to help plant more trees throughout the city. The Norris Tree Commission has also been instrumental in providing mentorship of this program.

Introducing Norris Dam State Park Seasonal Rangers 2018

Joseph Bailey-
The park is very fortunate to have graduate Joseph back for his second year. He completed The University of Tennessee Magna Cum Laude in May, B.S. Forestry. Not satisfied with this, he finished the Certified Interpretive Guide program early this month presented at Big Ridge State Park and he is working towards his Certified Naturalist credentials from Iams Nature Center. This requires an additional 40 hours of training over the next year. Owls, snakes and animals are his passion for the younger kids. He has already completed two trips to Hill Cave.

Emily Arnold-
Our "rookie" for the Summer, Emily comes to Norris Dam for her second year as a Seasonal Ranger. Summer 2017 she received some excellent training working with Ranger Mary Silver at Warriors Path State Park, Kingsport. A senior at The University of Tennessee, her studies are in Forestry and Wildland Recreation. Prior to UT, Emily served our County in the Navy for almost 5 years. New to snake programs, her first day on the park had her and Sappy presenting to some park guests. She will be spending much of her time at Camp DeWitt Kinchen.

Josh Powell-
All of Norris Dam State Park repeat guests are familiar with Josh! He returns for his 3rd year of Seasonal Ranger duties. Josh will graduate from The University of Tennessee with a degree in Wildlife and Fisheries early 2019. While presenting owl programs are his favorite, he is excited about leading the new Hill Cave tours this Summer and putting the Junior Ranger Camp together.

We have had numerous calls regarding our Junior Ranger Camp, 2018. Dates for the camp are July 17-20, 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM each day. The theme this year will be Park Appreciation and Preservation. Other topics will include history, safety-10 essentials and some animal interaction. Limited to 25 youth, sign-ups will begin on June 10th. Reach out to the Seasonal Rangers for more information, 865-426-7461. Ranger Trent Ellen will be graduating the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy in late June and he will be active in the Junior Ranger Camp also.
