Summer Learning Program

This summer nearly 100 Lake City Elementary School students are participating in a summer learning program to help bridge the gap between the end of one school year and the beginning of another.

Through this program students help curb summer learning losses as they review language arts, math, science, and social studies skills and prepare for new learning when school begins in August.

Each student works to complete one page a day in the Summer Bridge Activity Book and reports his or her progress to one of our many community partners the following week.

Our partners check to see that participant's complete the required pages, provide an incentive to continue, and encourage the student's efforts.

This program demonstrates a wonderful blend of collaboration between the school, parents, and community partners in reinforcing the importance of life-long learning for every student.

Lake City Elementary School is generously supported in this effort by several local business partners which include Lake City Library, Pilot, Pots & Petals Florist, Lake City Police Department, ShopRite Grocery, Bling & More, Holley Gamble Funeral Home, Powell Clinch Utility District, Rickard Ridge BBQ, Sonic (located in Lake City), McNeely Family Physicians and Corner Drug Store.

Wanted: A New Home For Coal Mining Museum

The Coal Mining Museum of the Cumberland Mountains is looking for a new home.

The museum is currently housed in the Lake City Community Center which was intended to be a temporary home. The museum board is looking for a new permanent home so that the artifacts can be properly displayed.

"Unfortunately, new homes cost money," said Chairperson Tim Isbel. "We are strategizing ways to raise money while we are identifying ideal locations for the museum. We are open to all possibilities"

The museum is working on a website and a facebook page to help promote the museum and the board's goals.

"We would also like to hear people's stories and connect with people who had ancestors from the area," said Isbel.

The website can be found at www.CoalMiningMuseum.com and the facebook page can be found at www.facebook.com/CoalMiningMuseum.

If you would like to become involved, the board will be meeting on August 1, August 29, September 26 and October 24 at 6 p.m. at the Lake City Community Center.

Everyone is welcome at the meetings. If you cannot attend the meetings but would like to be updated on the progress, please email info@coalminingmuseum.com.

Fourth of July Traffic Safety

The Fourth of July may be America's iconic holiday, but all too often the revelry ends in tragedy on the highways due to drunk driving. The Anderson County Sheriff's Department urges everyone to celebrate this Independence Day with a pledge to keep our community "independent" from drunk driving.

"The Fourth may be one of the nation's most popular holidays, but, unfortunately, it's also one of the most dangerous in terms of alcohol-related fatalities," said Sheriff Paul White. "Too many people think they can get behind the wheel because they've only had a few drinks and just have a 'buzz' on. The truth is you don't have to be falling down drunk to be a menace to yourself and everyone around you on the highways."

Sheriff's deputies will be out in force to keep our roadways safe during this Independence Day holiday period. A sobriety checkpoint will be held the evening of Friday, July 5, on Andersonville Highway (State Route 61) near Andersonville.

This will be a multi-agency effort sponsored by the Tennessee Highway Patrol. This effort is supported by a grant from the Governor's Highway Safety Office. For more information, please visit www.TrafficSafetyMarketing.gov.

Lake City's 4th of July Celebration

The City of Lake City will have an Independence Day celebration on July 4th at the Ball Field starting at 10 a.m. There will be baseball and softball games for the youth, inflatables, carnival games, a petting zoo, live music including a performance by Elvis, great food and much more. The evening will end with the firework show starting at 10 p.m.

United Way of Anderson County's Christmas in July

The United Way of Anderson County will kick off their annual campaign with a "Christmas in July" event at the DoubleTree Hotel in Oak Ridge on Saturday, July 13 from 6 to 10 p.m.

The evening will include hors d' oeuvres and cash bar, live and silent auction, buffet dinner, ugly Christmas sweater contest and an evening of entertainment.

The evening's menu will be a playful "Grinch Who Stole Christmas" themed buffet.

There will also be a portrait opportunity for souvenirs.

For more information or to RSVP, send an e-mail to Jennifer@UWAYAC.org or call (865) 483-8431.

RAM Telethon

The Remote Area Medical (RAM) Clinic will be held at Clinton's First Baptist Church in September. To help raise money for the clinic, there will be a concert and telethon on Friday July 12th from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Family Life Center of First Baptist Church, located at 225 North Main Street in Clinton.

The show will be broadcast live on WYSH AM & FM, WGAP and BBB-TV but you are encouraged to come out in person to enjoy performances by local artists as well as special surprise guests from the world of country music.

If you cannot make it to the show but still want to donate, you can do so by visiting www.andersoncountyram.com.

Some of the performers who will take the stage that night are the Mt. Sinai Missionary Baptist Church Choir and the Holder Sisters from Main Street Baptist Church in Lake City.

All the money raised will be used to support the RAM clinic that will be held in Clinton September 21st and 22nd, offering medical, dental and vision services to those in need.

Love the Clinch River?

Sign up for the Big Clinch River Cleanup

The first-ever Big Clinch River Cleanup starts at 8 a.m. on Saturday, July 20, with a breakfast and briefing for all participants at the Museum of Appalachia located at 2819 Andersonville Highway in Norris. The cleanup will wrap up about noon.

Everyone who enjoys the river, from anglers to kayakers to wildlife watchers, is invited to help remove litter from the Clinch and its banks. The communitywide cleanup is an expansion of annual pickups run for many years by members of the Clinch River Chapter, Trout Unlimited.

For this first year of the expanded event, volunteers will focus on the section between the Peach Orchard boat ramp and the River Road boat ramp (Miller's Island).

The Clinch River

To register and to qualify for the free full breakfast, please visit www.crctu.org and click on Big Clinch River Cleanup Registration.

For more information, contact Buzz Buffington at buzzflo@bellsouth.net or (865) 463-7167. In case of severe weather, the cleanup will be postponed until July 27.

Clinch River Chapter Trout Unlimited works to preserve and protect the Clinch River tailwater and its watershed through conservation projects and through education of children and adults in aquatic natural resources. CTCTU Meetings are held the second Thursday of the month in the parish hall at St. Francis Episcopal Church, Norris, except when outdoor activities are scheduled.

Fourth of July Anvil Shoot

Visitors to the Museum of Appalachia, a Smithsonian Affiliate Museum, will celebrate July 4 with an explosion of sound that pioneers heard thunder through the hills when they celebrated Independence Day.

Local blacksmiths would "shoot the anvil" to celebrate the nation's Independence, Christmas, and even Davy Crockett's election to the U.S. Congress.

Now, shooting the 175 pound anvil, an almost lost tradition, has come to be the highlight of the Museum's annual July 4th Celebration. Folks as far as 15 miles away have reported hearing the blast, and certainly everyone gathered for the excitement feels the earth shake under their feet.

Along with the big boom several times during the day, there will be patriotic ceremonies including a flag waving procession, Longhunter camp stories, Appalachian music and historic demonstrations.

Preparing to fire anvil

A bell-ringing ceremony will occur at precisely 2 p.m., coinciding with the National Bell Ringing Ceremony when more than 10,000 bells across the country are rung in unison. Thirteen youngsters will be selected from the audience to ring the bell in honor of the thirteen original colonies.

The Liberty Pole raising at 2:15 p.m. will commemorate a Colonial American practice signifying dissatisfaction with the English government. It illustrates the spirit of liberty among colonists in the early days of the War for Independence.

Wander the Museum's Village and see demonstrations of "Betsy Ross" sewing our nation's first flag, clogging, spinning, blacksmithing, woodcarving, mountain dulcimer making, sassafras tea brewing and cedar rail splitting.

Tasty summertime treats will be available, including grilled hamburgers and hot dogs, homemade ice cream, cakes, pies and cookies.

The Museum is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., with special July 4th activities from 10 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Admission will be charged but museum members will receive free admission.

Memberships provides a year of Museum visits. As an official affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, the Museum provides Smithsonian memberships in conjunction with its own membership program.

The Museum is located 16 miles north of Knoxville, one mile east of I-75, exit 122. For more information, call 865-494-7680, or visit www.museumofappalachia.org.

The Lord is My Shepherd

By Charlotte Martin

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want
How sweet the glad refrain!
He restoreth my soul in a dry, thirsty land
His blood that washed at Calvary cleanses away my every sin's stain.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want
He leadeth me through the pastures of green
By waters so peaceful and still.
Thou anointest my head with the finest of oil
My cup He doth spiritually fill.

This Shepherd kind, leaves the ninety and nine
For one little lost lamb to search and to find-
With His staff and His rod,
Safely prodding it back into the Shepherd's fold.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want
The story never grows old.
I was that little lost sheep
The Shepherd found and doth safely keep,
Now, forever safe within His tender fold.

Cheesy Tortellini Pasta Salad Recipe

ingredients

9oz package of tri-color cheese tortellini (the fresh refrigerated kind)
2 cups of chopped veggies (tomatoes, pesto tomatoes, bell peppers, mini peppers, etc...)
8 ounces of your favorite flavorful cheese, cubed finely grated parmesan and romano cheese (fresh or the sprinkle kind!)
salt and pepper, if desired

Simple Italian Dressing:

1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil
1/4 cup white vinegar
1 TBSP Mrs. Dash Italian Seasoning
1/2 TBSP of garlic powder
1/4 tsp of salt
freshly ground black pepper, if desired, to taste

Whisk all ingredients together and allow to sit. Giving the dressing some time to mingle will not only infuse flavor into the oil/vinegar but also soften the dry herbs and seasoning. After letting it set, whisk once more and pour over your salad! It should keep in your fridge for about a week, if needed. If you're making this salad to serve the following day (it tastes awesome the next day!) feel free to make extra dressing so you can drizzle some extra over the salad just before serving. You can also add bacon or roasted chicken/turkey/ham if you'd like!

Want it creamy? Mix the above Italian dressing recipe with your favorite caesar dressing.

Bring a medium pot of water to a boil. Add your tortellini and reduce heat to gently cook the pasta to either tender or al-dente. Once you think they're done, grab a noodle to taste-test and remove from heat. Drain in a colander and pour into a medium-large serving bowl. Toss in your chopped veggies and cheeses and pour the dressing (recipe above) over the noodles. Cover the bowl and refrigerate to chill the pasta and allow the flavors from the dressing to soak into the salad. It acts almost as a marinade and infuses the noodles, veggies and cheese with flavor. When you're ready to eat, drizzle a little extra dressing over the top and dust the entire bowl with parmesan romano cheese.

Hiking Tall Timbers Trail

By Lauren Baghetti, Park Ranger

It was this time two years ago that I explored Christmas Fern Trail. This month I am writing about Tall Timbers Trail which is very similar to the aforementioned trail.

Both trails are part of the CCC trail system, are approximately 1/2 mile in length, and have the same vegetation. Tall Timbers is a linear trail that runs behind the rustic cabins on the east side of the park. It is blazed red and rated easy.

Since it is a liner trail it gives hikers the option of two places to start. One trail head is beside rustic cabin 10 and the other is below the Tea Room. This description begins at the trailhead located next to the rustic cabin. The trail begins by heading down the hill towards the lake. Within thirty yards the trail splits.

Tall Timbers continues by taking a sharp left and to the right is Lake View Trail. After the sharp left the trail travels along the hillside with the cabins uphill and Norris Lake downhill.

The next bit follows a gradual downward slope. You will soon reach a bench, which during winter months provides a view of the lake. If you stop for a water and snack break be sure to pick up trash instead of leaving it behind.

Just past the bench are two trees that have fallen and the entire root ball was pulled out of the ground.

The first is the smaller of the two, but is still an imposing sight to see. The second is at least 12 feet in diameter.

When the entire root ball is pulled up, it creates quite an impressive hole in the ground. It gives hikers the chance to see what a tree's root system looks like. Both trees are on the right side of the trail.

The trail will flatten out and then begin to slope downward again. You will soon reach Christmas Fern Trail.

You can continue straight or turn left and head up a set of stairs to reach the Tea Room.

Along the trail you will find tulip poplar which is the state tree, umbrella magnolia, beech, and sugar maple trees. You will also see Christmas and bracken ferns.

The day I hiked it I also saw red, orange/tan, and white mushrooms giving the green and brown trail some color.

It was a typical summer day when I headed out for the day's walk: hot, humid, and threatening rain.

When hiking during the summer there are several things you need to beware of and prepare for.

First is insects; summer brings out ticks and mosquitoes so check for ticks after hiking. Be sure to bring plenty of water to drink. Since it is east Tennessee and the weather is unpredictable, do not forget a rain jacket.

I encourage everyone to get out and hike Tall Timbers Trail. It is a short and easy trail to hike with your children, dog, or go running on.

ACES Students Announced

The Education Foundation for Anderson County and Clinton City Schools is pleased to announce that 146 students from Anderson County High School and Clinton High School have met the standards of the ACES program upon completion of their 2012-2013 school year.

This includes 94 students from Anderson County High School and 52 students from Clinton High School.

The "Anderson County Exemplary Student" program was initiated with the class of 2007 at Anderson County High School and Clinton High School. The goal of the program is to raise academic and civic standards for high school students. The standards include academic requirements, 90% attendance and 20 hours of volunteer work in the community each year.

If students achieve the ACES standards each year of their high school career, they will be eligible for one-time scholarships upon graduation.

A total of $17,500 in scholarships was awarded by the Education Foundation to the recent class of 2013, with 35 students each receiving a $500 scholarship.

The Education Foundation for Clinton City and Anderson County Schools funds the ACES Scholarship Program with donations from area businesses, industry, individuals and community service organizations.

The Education Foundation is still seeking donations to fund the ACES Program, teacher mini-grants and other special programs. For more information, please call Kelly Lenz at 457-1649.
