A Candlelight Christmas

Museum of Appalachia, NORRIS, Tenn.: Beginning on December 5th, the Museum will celebrate Christmas in Old Appalachia, a festive winter celebration that captures the beauty and simplicity of an old-fashioned Christmas. Inside the cabins, simple cedar Christmas trees are draped with paper chains, popcorn strings, sweet gum, and sycamore balls. Tattered or well-worn quilts are laid under the trees; topped with carved wooden animals, tin horns, rag dolls, wagons, and spinning tops—all of which were presents found early on Christmas morning. The Little Tater Valley School House is adorned with hand-made ornaments made by local students.

Christmas in Old Appalachia
December 5-24, 2016

On Saturday, December 12th the Museum will host A Candlelight Christmas from 5pm until 8pm. Stroll selected buildings in the Museum village, enjoy the Christmas story, sample holiday wassail, sing carols in the Irwin Chapel, visit with Museum animals, and more. Families will experience the beauty of an Appalachian Christmas during a simpler and more peaceful time. Guests are encouraged to bring flashlights or battery operated lanterns.

Continuing through December 24th, special holiday exhibits include the children's display in the Hall of Fame, with toys and furniture made by loving parents and grandparents, and Granny Irwin's traditional Christmas Crazy Quilt—brought out only on special or festive occasions.

Browse the Shop at the Museum where you'll find 'American made', hand-crafted items. Enjoy hot, southern country-style lunches, served daily from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Museum restaurant. Home-made cakes, pies, cookies, and other holiday treats are available all day, or can be made special to order for Christmas gatherings.

December hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily (9:00 a.m.-3pm on Christmas Eve and closed Christmas Day). The Museum, a Smithsonian Affiliate and a not-for-profit organization, is located 16 miles North of Knoxville, one mile East of I-75, Exit 122. ## Norris Dam State Park News

Rustic Cabin Renovation

By Ranger Lauren Baghetti

The rustic cabins, built by the Civilian Conservation Corp in the 1930's, are very popular and loved by many. Nestled in the woods, the cabins have wood floors, walls, and ceilings and stone fireplaces giving them a rustic and cozy feel. Many couples who spent their honeymoon at Norris Dam State Park staying in a rustic cabin have returned twenty, thirty, and even fifty years later to stay once more, and families and vacationers have made many memories here. After years of use and enjoyment it was time for major renovation work in order for couples to continue enjoying their wedding and anniversaries, families to gather, and vacationers to enjoy nature.

In November 2014 renovation work began on the rustic cabins. This past September, just ten months later, we were able to open them up to be rented once more. In the eighty years of existence they have undergone several changes and renovations. This past one included aesthetic and infrastructure work.

When you step inside you will notice several changes. All the kitchen appliances were replaced, including the sink, refrigerator, and range. New cabinets and counters were also installed. Many guests have commented the beds needed to be replaced. We listened and each box spring and mattress was replaced. Each cabin was cooled by a window unit and heated by a space heater. Those days are gone. Each cabin now has its own central heat and air unit controlled by a remote control. We have also installed dehumidifiers for the humid East Tennessee summer months. The bathroom fixtures were also replaced.

This year's class of Jr. Rangers contributed to the project as well. Each Jr. Ranger painted a piece of artwork which was framed and hung in a rustic cabin. Pictures depict the park, wildlife, plants, and some are patriotic. Their artwork adds color and brightness to the cabins.

The outside of the cabins also received attention. Driving through you will see the cabins are now dark brown instead of the light brown they were for several years. Steps were installed at cabin five. Work was also done which may not be as apparent. Sidewalks and driveways were repaired from running water after heavy rains and new roofs were put on. Infrastructure work included electrical, plumbing, and replacing rotten subflooring and floor boards.

There is still more to come. In a few weeks the dining tables and restaurant style chairs will be replaced with wooden tables and chairs made in Tennessee. Another major change is the rustic cabins are now open year round. Previously, they were shut down for the winter months.

As the saying goes, pictures tell a thousand words. However, to get a real feel for the rustic cabins and the work done, you will have to stay in one for yourself. If you are interested in renting a rustic cabin contact the park office or go online to <http://tnstateparks.com/parks/about/norris-dam>.

Norris Dam State Park will be having our annual Holiday Homecoming Saturday, December 12, 2015. This will be the 12th year of enjoying the holiday season in nature! The festivities will take place on the historic East Side from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Join us for a walk through time discovering life and traditions from the 1930's. The rustic cabins are transformed to a winter village of living history. Cabins will have natural, historical, cultural themes, as well as remembering the nation's veterans. It's an evening full of historic and education interpretation, olde time music entertainment, theatrical holiday skits, storytelling, holiday treats, and of course St. Nick to tell your Christmas wishes. The Tea Room will be lit up with trees, lights, and olde time caroling. A hot meal will be available for you to purchase. Hot chocolate and coffee will also be available. Alcohol is prohibited at the park and event.

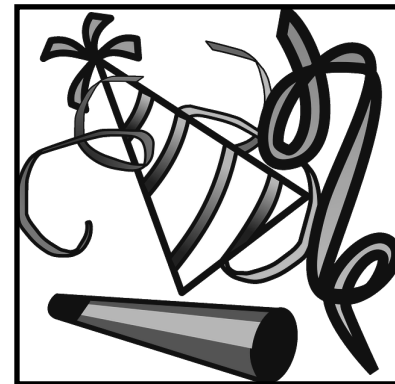

Be prepared to walk about half a mile through a sea of luminaries, so dress warmly and comfortably, and for your added safety please bring a flashlight. In lieu of an entrance fee donations will be greatly appreciated. For more information call the park office at (865) 426-7461. We hope to see you there!!

Midnight New Year Celebration Hike

Thursday, December 31 Starts at: 11:59 PM to 2:00 AM.

Join the fun! Over 60 hikers joined us last year to kick off the New Year hike along Andrews Ridge. We are shooting for over 100 participants this year. Bring flashlights and warm clothes. We will end the hike with refreshments and a bon fire. Last year we had to send everyone home at 3:30 AM!

Start 2016 with us and then join other parks for their hikes later in the day. This is a two and a half mile, moderate hike. Young and old are welcome to join the fun! For more information, contact Park Manager Mark Morgan at the park office, 865-426-7461. Meetup: Andrews Ridge Trail System, just below the west campground. We will meet/head out on Andrews Ridge and drop off onto Sinkhole Trail.

Celebrity Waiter Event Raises $12,600 for American Cancer Society

The 4th Annual Celebrity Waiter Dinner in Anderson County was once again a huge success, with $12,600 raised to benefit the American Cancer Society. The event was held at 205 Main on Thursday evening, November 12th with 155 guests seated at 18 tables hosted by area "Celebrity Waiters". The emcee of the evening was Ron Arms.
